Let's get personal

Describe something personal to you. For example, you could describe:

- Your favourite journey or walk
- Where you live
- A room in the house of someone you know well.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, set against a background of a blue-toned illustration. The illustration includes a large tree with a wooden treehouse and a ladder, a small house, a pond with a sailboat and swans, a person walking, and a tall building.

OPPOSITE DAY

Teenagers love and need their mobile phones

Take one of the popular views in the speech bubbles and write persuasively for the complete opposite!

There is nothing to learn from reality television shows, they are just a bit of fun

Dogs make great pets

LOOK OUT!

Write a story or the opening of a novel which begins with aliens invading your school.

A recipe for disaster

Write a poem about a disaster. You could, for example:

- Write a poem inspired by one of your nightmares
- Write a poem which sets out the recipe for disaster
- Write a poem about how to fail at something.

A series of horizontal blue lines for writing a poem, starting from the top of the page and extending down to the illustration.

GO GRAPHIC!

Turn a favourite part of a book you are reading into a page or two from a graphic novel or comic.
